

Obituary

Skaife

Jasper N. Skaife died at the residence, 341 North 19th street, January 14, aged 80 years; husband of Josephine; father of Mrs. Charles Roth of The Dalles, Mrs. Max Hill of Salem; brother of Mrs. John Marthaler of Fairfield and Mrs. Jim Broyles of Salem; grandfather of Charles, Richard and Joe Roth. Funeral services Friday, January 16, at 11 a. m. from the chapel of W. T. Rigdon and Son, Rev. Grover C. Birtchet officiating. Interment I. O. O. F. cemetery.

JASPER N. SKAIFE SERVICES FRIDAY

Funeral services for Jasper N. Skaife, 80, who died at his home here, 341 North 19th street, Wednesday afternoon, will be held Friday at 11 a. m. from the Rigdon mortuary, with Rev. Grover C. Birtchet officiating. Interment will be in the Odd Fellows cemetery.

Joseph N. Skaife was for a number of years floorwalker at the Ladd and Bush bank, and prior to that engaged in the plumbing and pump business here. He was born in an emigrant train that was crossing the plains to Oregon during the summer of 1850. He lived in the Fairfield vicinity and Salem all his life and was prominent in pioneer circles.

For the past several years Mr. Skaife has been in ill health and has been bedfast for the past 11 weeks.

He is survived by his widow and two daughters, Mrs. Max Hill of Salem and Mrs. Charles Roth of The Dalles; two sisters, Mrs. John Marthaler of Fairfield and Mrs. Jim Broyles of Salem.

Oregon Statesman-Jan. 15, 1931